We hear you

How about passing the hat for the fireworks?

Everyone I've talked to is outraged about the city cancelling the Fourth of July fireworks. They feel like children whose hands have been slapped because they voted for Prop. 13. I believe we could collect enough donations to put on the fireworks just by having a few people stand at shopping centers for a weekend or by getting local clubs to help. If anyone feels as I do they can call me at 374-5798.

NEVA LAEDERICH

Editor's note: Neva was put in touch with Ralph Pfirrman, chairman of the Fourth of July Planning Committee. She planned to appear before the City Council Tuesday evening during budget hearings to find out if the Council would reconsider if funds are donated for fireworks.

So the city saved less than $2,000 by cancelling the fireworks on July 4th. On the same page today you had a story about nobody losing their job in the city because of Prop. 13. It sure sounds like somebody up there isn't getting the message.

A TAXPAYER

I remember when the City of Campbell was claiming that Jarvis-Gann would mean less police and firemen and that a whole slew of employees would have to be fired. Now, suddenly, after the election there doesn't have to be any layoffs. And bureaucrats wonder why the public doesn't believe them.

A SKEPTIC

I'm a mother who is always watching the time. Just try to find a clock on Winchester or on Campbell avenue. And I don't want to run down to City Hall to find out what time it is either. All those new places opening up. If they'd put a clock out front they'd have a lot more people looking their way. An ideal spot, I think, would be to put a clock atop the water tower at the Factory.

A CLOCK WATCHER

This taxing agency isn't hurting in the wake of the election

While most taxing agencies are making a mad scramble for available funds in the wake of the June 6 election, one local group is plugging along, undisturbed.

Sanitation District 4, based on Sunnyoaks ave., made a change in their source of funding earlier this year, from property taxes and fees to almost entirely fees. As of July 1, just 6 cents will come from property taxes to pay off outstanding bonds. All operating costs now come from fees.

"I wish we could say we were far seeing," commented Director Steve Goodman last week. "Actually, we got word from the state controller six years ago that sewer taxing agencies should use public utilities-type financing."

A further impetus for that change came through federal and state regulations which dictate operating costs should be charged to users according to their use.

Goodman says he expects the district will feel some impact from Proposition 13.

"But right now we don't know what it will be."

Trustees cancel summer school

It's official — there will be no summer programs in the Campbell union school district this year.

The district board of education voted Monday to follow superintendent Walter Hauss' recommendation that the summer programs be cancelled in the wake of Proposition 13.

Among the programs to bite the dust were summer school, summer music, speech classes and recreation activities. Trustee Gordon Abbott voted against the motion.

Administrative assistant Ruby Giese said there was a possibility the city of Campbell might pick up the music program, but added that decision was entirely the city's.

However, the board turned down a proposal to form a Jarvis-Gann Ad Hoc Committee to study the various alternatives regarding program reductions and make recommendations to the superintendent and board. They said they needed more time to study the proposal.

In another action, the board accepted as submitted the list of administrative personnel assignments for the 1978-79 school year. However, the names involved will not be made public until the individuals can be informed of the switches.

The board also:

Received but took no action on the report of the Killian Management Service regarding reorganization of the Division of Business Services.

Set June 29 as the date for adoption of a tentative budget for the 1978-79 school year.

Delayed action on a proposed revision of board policy on meetings until June 29.

'Gold plated service'

Street sweeping cut

By PAT SAFFORD

CAMPBELL'S "Gold plated street sweeping service," as one staffer described it, will be cutback, city councilmen decided Monday night.

Residential service, now weekly, will drop down to about once every three weeks and commercial sweeping service from twice a week to weekly.

An exception to that cutback will be during the two or three week heavy leaf fall season, councilmen ruled, when more frequent service is slated.

That edict was one of several issued during the first of three budget hearings Monday night. Sessions were also planned Tuesday and Wednesday.

At the end of the four hour session councilmen had restored $35,750 to the original budget proposal submitted by City Manager Bob Stephens and chopped $4,000 in overtime and temporary help costs for the Public Works Department. Several suggested cutbacks in personnel were continued to the Wednesday session for final decision.

RESTORED to the $7.9 million operating budget was $25,000 to fund eight high school work experience students at $2.40 hourly, $750 for the Kids to Camp Program, $5,000 for community service programs (mainly youth services) and $5,000 for the Campbell Chamber of Commerce. Originally the budget called for a $12,000 allocation to the chamber but they was dropped in the post June 6 version.

One city official was sharply critical of the budget proposal, charging city staffers are not getting the message of Proposition 13.

"I recall we estimated a loss of between 30 and 35 people before the election," Councilman Bill Podgorsek said. "Since then we scrounged around and looked and dug and made some more estimates. It seems kind of ironic to listen to your message," he told Stephens. "All of a sudden we're not comtemplating eliminating any positions."

Stephens' "Proposition 13" budget, which came under official scrutiny for the first time Monday night, indicates no layoffs will be needed and the use of $330,195 in federal revenue sharing funds to offset the budget deficit.

IF THE agreement between the county and city over funding the communications system is ratified, that deficit would drop by $150,000.

Monday evening Supervisor Rod Diridon made a successful pitch to renegotiate an agreement with Campbell in an attempt to mollify Santa Clara and Sunnyvale who earlier voted to pull out of a sales tax agreement. In return for county funding of communications the city agrees to continue the sales tax agreement with the county for five years.

Originally the county received one tenth of the one cent sales tax levy Campbell receives. Under an agreement hammered out with Santa Clara last year the county's portion is frozen at the 1975 level which means Campbell forks over about seven

Branham teacher stabbed

Slaying leaves school district in shock

By CHUCK HILDEBRAND

WHY?

That's the question on everyone's lips this week after the murder of Branham high school teacher Diane Peterson on the San Jose campus Friday.

Peterson, 26, was stabbed once in the chest while outside her classroom just after noon. She died about an hour later at Good Samaritan Hospital.

Police are seeking a suspect in his late teens or early 20's with a broken front tooth. He was seen fleeing the campus by a passing bicyclist.

According to all the people contacted, Peterson was a mild-mannered, hard-working, dedicated instructor. All called her an extremely unlikely candidate for a retaliatory assault and none could fathom the reason for the killing.

BRANHAM principal Jack Wagnon was subdued, almost in a state of shock, as he reflected on the crime Monday.

"I have a daughter about the same age, and I feel about this murder about the same way I would feel if it was my daughter," he said.

He called her a "gentle, mild, decent upstanding girl," adding that she had "excellent rapport with the students and was interested in their welfare," and stressed that neither she or anyone else on campus had any reason to fear violence. "That's what makes the crime so appalling," he said.

According to Wagnon, the almost total lack of violence or tension at Branham and other Campbell union high school district campuses made the crime particularly shocking.

Wagnon doesn't feel the murderer was a student because of Peterson's close relationships with her students, although San Jose homicide detectives say they haven't discounted the possibility.

Wagnon's feelings were echoed by Bud Baldwin, principal at Campbell high where Peterson taught for a year before moving on to Branham.

"I'D BE GREATLY shocked if the murderer turned out to be a student," Baldwin said. "Of all the teachers I've been associated with she's among the most unlikely to cause anything like this."

He didn't feel there was any logical motive. "In our society there's a line between rational and irrational response to stress, and I could see where a student with a grudge could cross that line, but it certainly wasn't indicative of the student-teacher relationship involved."

"I'm at a loss to explain why, or to understand why it was Diane Peterson," he added.

Baldwin, Wagnon and district superintendent Nicholas Montesano all agreed that the incident was an isolated occurrence and was not indicative of the atmosphere at CUHSD schools.

MONTESANO SAID no plans are being made to beef up campus security or to take any other measures as the result of the murder. "We very seldom have fistfights, much less anything like this," he declared.

Police had no solid leads to go on as of press time, and were in the process of interviewing approximately 150 seniors who were on the other side of the campus preparing for a trip to Disneyland at the time of the murder.

Peterson, a graduate of San Jose State University, was survived by her husband and infant son David. She was the daughter of Paul and Margaret Pizzi and the sister of Roxanne Pizzi.

A memorial service was held Tuesday evening at the Chapel of the Oaks at Oak Hill Cemetery. Burial was scheduled for Wednesday morning at the same location.

The family asked that donations be sent to the Home Savings and Loan, Willow Glen branch, for a trust fund for David Peterson's education.

Youth activities

A way to beat the summer blahs

IS A LONG, hot, dull summer in the offing for your kids?

Long and hot, perhaps. But it needn't be dull.

With summer school cancelled, high school pools closed and some recreation programs cutback you have to look harder. But dozens of activities, athletic, cultural and entertainment, are available.

The following guide is designed to help parents counter that proverbial complaint of youngsters; "There's nothing to do!"

CAMPING

The YMCA and both the Boy and Girl Scouts are offering day and resident camps for non-members as well as members.

The YMCA camps are being conducted by both the southwest branch in Los Gatos and the Central branch in San Jose. Traditional wilderness outings and "trip camps" to such places as Disneyland and Yosemite are also planned. For further information phone 256-7126 (Los Gatos) or 298-1717 (San Jose).

The Boy Scouts have day and resident camperships available for boys 8-14.

Cost for the day program is $30 per week ($5 more for non-members), which includes lunch.

Sixty dollars per week, plus $5 additional for non-members, is charged for the resident program.

Call 249-6060 for details.

The Girl Scouts plan to operate two resident camps in outlying areas, Hidden Falls and Skylark Ranch, in addition to 20 day camps throughout the valley.

Fees for each seven-day session are $72 and include transportation, insurance, food and program materials. A 13-day session at Hidden Falls is $130.

For more information call 287-4170.

BOATING

Boating enthusiasts can rent sailboats, rowboats and canoes at Los Gatos' Vasona Lake Park. Fees range from $3 to $6 an hour.

Sailing classes are also available for a $22.50 signup fee. Call 395-6755.

FISHING

The Campbell Percolation Ponds, Vasona Lake and Lexington Reservoir are productive haunts for local fishermen.

The percolation ponds are no longer being stocked with trout but still yield bluegills, croppies and sunfish.

Vasona has recently been stocked with bass and catfish and Lexington will soon be stocked with bass in addition to the trout currently in residence.

A fishing license for those 16 and over is required. They cost $9 and may be obtained at local sporting good stores.

SKATEBOARDING

Two facilities in Campbell give the dry-surfing set a place to do their thing — the Campbell Skateboard Park at 2155 S. Bascom ave. and the Winchester Skateboard Park at 2885 S. Winchester.

SWIMMING

The Central YMCA, 1717 The Alameda, offers open swimming and classes to both members and non-members.

Also, the West Valley college swimming pool will be open from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Monday, Wednesday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday and from 1 to 6 on Tuesday and Thursday. Cost is $1 for adults, 50 cents for students under 18 with a student body card and children.

COURT GAMES

All eight Campbell union high school district schools have lighted tennis courts at no charge, and all eight also have handball courts.

Tennis and racquetball lessons are also available through Campbell Community Services, 75 N. Central ave.

BOWLING

Signups are being taken for junior leagues on Monday morning and Monday through Thursday afternoons at Cambrian Bowl, corner of Union and Camden avenues.

Approximate cost is $2.25 per week for the leagues, which are open to anyone five years or older. For further information call 377-2354.

TRACK, RUNNING

A jogging and conditioning class beginning July 11 at the Campbell high school track is being offered by Campbell Community Services, 75 N. Central.

In addition, West Valley college sponsors allcomers track meets each Tuesday evening starting at 5 p.m. at the WVC oval.

CAMPBELL COMMUNITY SERVICES

Community Services offerings for the summer include programs for youngsters, tennis, racquetball, bridge (16 and older), dog obedience, cheerleading, disco dancing (16 and older), modeling (12-16 year olds), baton twirling and close-up magic.

Information and registration may be obtained at 75 N. Central ave. or by calling 378-8141.

YWCA

The YWCA-Cambrian Center, 4343 Leigh ave. San Jose, is offering 17 programs for younger children and 29 more for teenagers and adults.

Call 269-7534.

SAN TOMAS CENTER

The City of San Jose's San Tomas Community Center, 4093 Valarie drive, is offering archery, ballet, baton twirling, guitar, gymnastics, tumbling and weaving classes, among others, for children and teenagers.

Preschool and senior citizen's programs are also in the works. For information call 379-9370.

CHILDRENS' THEATER

Young aspiring actors or actresses can get involved with the San Jose Children's Musical Theater, 43 E. St. James st.

The group plans productions of four musicals later in the summer and also conducts various classes.

For more specifics call 247-5437.

AMUSEMENT PARKS, ETC.

For those willing and able to travel a bit further, a host of amusement parks and other similar fun centers exist.

They include: Marine World — Africa U.S.A., Marriott's Great America, Frontier Village, Happy Hollow, Santa Cruz Beach and Boardwalk, Roaring Camp in Felton, just to name a few.

There are also museums and historical landmarks in the valley — the Rosicrucian Museum, the San Jose Historical Museum, Via Montalvo in Los Gatos, and the Winchester Mystery House, for starters.

LIBRARIES

Numerous special events, ranging from a lecture on spiders to a bubble gum contest, are offered for youngsters by the Campbell Library, 70 N. Central ave. Pre-school activities are also on the agenda, as are movies and a summer reading club. Call 378-8141.

EMPLOYMENT AND VOLUNTEER WORK

The Youth Employment Service, 93 S. Central ave., currently has between 450 and 500 job openings available to youths 14-24. YES employees line up the openings each day and applicants are responsible for checking in with the office to see if the offerings fit their needs.

The YES office number is 378-1666.

Volunteers are needed to help out at the Campbell high school recycling center, 1 W. Campbell ave., each Saturday between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Interested youths should contact Mrs. McClough at 378-7781.

The junior auxiliary at Los Gatos Community Hospital is also seeking summer volunteers to perform a variety of tasks from clerical work to helping patients.

Anyone interested in filling one of the 20 openings should call Charlene Ely at 354-5568. Applicants should be 14 or older.

This is by no means a complete list of all summer activities in the Campbell area — just a sampling to get your kids on the right track. So you see, it doesn't have to be a long, dull summer after all!

Prop. 13 causes a problem

Faltering parking district needs $50,000 from city to stay afloat

CAMPBELL MAY BE putting up $50,000 to bolster the faltering $1.7 million parking district, councilmen decided Monday night.

Those funds would be set aside, along with another $50,000 from bonding firms, to guarantee the district in case of default.

June 19 was to have been the day the bonds were officially offered for sale to fund the two-decker parking deck and other additional parking for The Factory and the nearby Wrinkled Prune Annex. Proposition 13 changed all that.

Monday night, on the advice of bond attorney Phil Assaf, councilmen voted unanimously to cancel that sale.

THE CITY'S BACKING of LID 27 originally included the power to tack on 10 cents to the local tax rate to make bond payments if the district later went into default. With the statewide tax initiative that power is now doubtful and bonding firms aren't willing to take the gamble.

Everett Williams of Stone and Youngberg, a bonding firm, made the alternate proposal to city officials. Williams said he was also representing the firms of Wolf Hansen and Stern Brenner.

If the city will put up the $50,000, Williams said, the bonding companies will put up a like amount. The city could draw interest on those funds, he added, and at the end of bonding period all funds would revert to the city, "with no strings attached."

In case of default by The Factory owners, he said, the city could sell the downtown development for a minimum of one year's principal and interest, thereby recovering its costs.

A FORMAL REVISED proposal will be drawn up this week for presentation to the council Monday night.

Williams also called for "spreading the assessments" on the three parcels. He said the $538,000 originally charged against one parcel (the Wrinkled Prune Annex) is comparable in value to the property. Bonding firms usually require a 2 to 1 value versus bond ratio or higher. Williams proposed some of that $538,000 be shifted to the larger parcels.

The city still has some questions to answer before final approval next week. This would be the first city to enter such an agreement since passage of Prop. 13.

"You're leading the hit parade," Williams remarked.

Councilman Rusty Hammer called the proposal "the only real prayer that we have to get it (the parking district) going."

It is also the only way the city can hope to recover the estimated $100,000 in costs the city incurred on the original downtown parking district. Under provisions of the agreement between Campbell and the property owners, most of that original cost would be recovered.

Sweeping service cut back by two thirds to homes

tenths of one per cent, Diridon explained.

"And it's more like four one hundreths for Santa Clara," Diridon added.

In order to receive consideration from Santa Clara, this new sales tax-communications agreement must be ratified by all 15 cities in the county.

IN THE post June 6 budget the most heavily cut portions were in the area of youth services and programs and one member of the audience, Barbara Johnson, 180 W. Rincon ave., made note of it.

"I see we're still concerned with senior citizens (most programs are intact) but the other end of the spectrum needs some attention too," Johnson said.

Ken Podgorsek, chairman of the Youth Advisory Commission agreed.

"Do not treat youth as second class citizens," the youth leader told councilmen.

In restoring $5,000 for temporary help to the community services budget, councilmen left it up to Coordinator Barbara Harrison to determine how that should be spent with a report to come back to the council Wednesday. Such programs as teen activities and the kiddy camp program had been cut, along with adult sports such as staffing for the drop-in volleyball program.

Approved for the 1978-79 budget by councilmen was $23,755 for the senior nutrition program, $18,450 for the Campbell Progressive Seniors and $6,000 for senior trips and classes, partially offset by fees.

COUNCILMEN also approved a $17,000 taxi subsidy program for the elderly and disabled, to be funded by the county. That program would provide 650 local taxi trips monthly at an estimated cost to users of 50 cents per ride.

A decision on the senior citizen drop-in center comtemplated for downtown Campbell, was put off until the August final budget hearings. A report by Harrison indicated it would cost $36,000 yearly, mainly for staffing.

Administrative Assistant Terry Ellis told officials the Council on Aging has verbally approved the city's application for $20,077 in Title V funds to help acquire and refurbish a site for the senior center. The city would be required to match that with $6,692.

Rent for the downtown site being eyed would be $800 monthly for a three lyear lease. Councilman Podgorsek had one suggestion on how that fee might be reduced.

He proposed the city contact the property owner and ask for a rent reduction out of tax savings with the passage of Proposition 13.

Police arrest four in drug crop harvest

San Jose police seized between 15 and 20 pounds of marijuana and arrested four Campbell High School students in an orchard behind a home on Via Cristobal earlier this month.

According to reports, three 18 year olds and one juvenile were arrested on charges of harvesting marijuana, a felony, and the misdemeanor charge of possession of more than one ounce of marijuana.

Police found the large crop of marijuana growing wild in the orchard one evening after receiving a tip from a resident of the area, they reported. Officers confiscated as much as they could before dusk.

When police returned the next morning to complete the job they discovered the students in the field harvesting what was left and made the arrests.

Moreland declares emergency

Moreland school district trustees, following the edict of the state, voted to eliminate the summer school program last week. They also declared a State of Emergency due to expected loss in local tax income but delayed action on specific cuts until the distribution of local funds and the state surplus is known.

In other post Jarvis-Gann action, the board withdrew from a lawsuit which contends the Jarvis-Gann initiative is unconstitutional. Earlier trustees had voted to pledge up to $500 to support that suit, brought by many school districts throughout the state.

The withdrawal of support and funding was made because the district didn't feel the litigation reflected their main concerns, according to Superintendent Richard Davis.

Instead of a constitutional challenge, Davis explained, trustees were most concerned about getting their fair share of local taxes and with the equitable distribution of state surplus funds.

"My problem is getting school open this fall," Davis said.

Kudos for Sparrer

EDITOR:

Not many months ago I complained about the content of the Press' sports pages. At that time, and in the summer past, I was never treated to stories on Little League baseball, Bobby Sox softball, soccer and the numerous sports which Campbell's youth have the opportunity to enjoy.

Now I find very fine coverage of school athletics, baseball, softball, and just about all the local activities available. (Although I feel synchronized swimming, and the dedicated young ladies that participate in it, have been slighted).

Mr. Sparrer, nonetheless, should be commended for the new dedication to the local sports scene.

Letter gets response

EDITOR:

In April I wrote my concerns regarding the effect of stories about reunions of people who had been adopted with their biological parents. I was particularly concerned about the Senate Bill 535 which seemed to be on the verge of becoming law, without, as I saw it, a balanced presentation of all aspects of the question.

There was reader response and action in the form of letters to representatives in the state legislature. Combined with action from others, these letters caused the senate to return the bill to the conference committee.

The purpose of this letter is to thank you for the speed and prominence with which you printed my letter. I also wish to inform your readers that the conference committee has been appointed to consider amendments. The members are: Senators Campbell, Marx, and Roberti, and Assembly members Mangers, Gualco, and Young.

More information about the bill may be obtained by calling your own representatives or by calling me at 378-2355.

We hear you

The City Manager says a third fire station is the "number one priority" for the City of Campbell. The implication here is that this is more important than our paramedics. That's his opinion. Or maybe the opinion of the whole city, I don't know. But it isn't mine. For the 10 years I've lived here we got along fine with two stations. If anybody's taking a poll on this my vote is with the paramedics.

ONE MAN'S OPINION

Is there any plan to consolidate the Campbell and Los Gatos (elementary) school districts? If there's any group working on something like this I'd like to know about it so I can join them.

CONCERNED MOTHER

Editor's note: According to Ruby Giese, administrative assistant in the Campbell elementary district, she has heard of no such proposals.

I was reading your story about what the councilmen own and I wonder if there may be a conflict of interest in accepting those free (movie) passes. I wonder about our officials accepting these kinds of gratuities when they might also have to deal with problems, such as noise, at those theaters.

CURIOUS

Editor's note: According to City Attorney Bob Dempster, he doesn't feel there is any conflict of interest involved here. By the way a city staffer says officials were given discount tickets, not passes. Generally, officials are prohibited from taking part in discussion or a vote on a motion that they can reasonably expect to benefit financially from. It's doubtful that those tickets would be construed as a financial interest.

As a long time resident and an old Campbell High School grad I'd like to know why they changed the name of the Oriole (yearbook) this year? The cover says Buc Review. It's been called the Oriole for as long as I can remember and goes back at least to the early 1900's.

CONCERNED ALUMNI

WRECK VICTIM CRITICAL

A 21-year-old San Jose man was reported in critical condition Monday and two others were injured as the result of a two-car collision early Sunday morning at the intersection of Hamilton and Bascom avenues.

Ronald Scott Ferguson, 6563 Canterbury ct., was taken unconscious to Valley Medical Center for surgery and remains in the intensive care unit.

Police said Ferguson, southbound on Bascom avenue around 1 a.m., apparently ran a red light and smashed into the vehicle of Paul Ingram Clifton, 28, of 1179 Park Heights drive, Milpitas, which was westbound on Hamilton avenue.

According to reports, Clifton's car was hit broadside and sent spinning for some distance. Clifton suffered a cut on his forehead that required 25 stitches and a passenger in his auto also suffered a cut on the chin. Both were treated and released at O'Connor Hospital.

Police are seeking a complaint against Ferguson for running the red light and for speeding.

NEAR-RAPE ON HACIENDA

Police took a 29-year-old Campbell man into custody on charges of attempted rape, burglary and attempted burglary as the result of an incident at a Hacienda avenue apartment Friday morning.

According to police reports, the assailant allegedly gained entry to the woman's apartment by asking for a match, and then attempted to rape her at knifepoint.

She resisted, and a Campbell police officer investigating a prowler complaint in the vicinity heard the struggle, rushed to the woman's aid and made the arrest.

SAFEWAY RECEIPTS SWIPED

Approximately $7,900 worth of checks and currency in the process of being placed in a night deposit box were taken at gunpoint at the First National Bank in the Campbell Plaza shopping center Wednesday night, police reports revealed.

The night receipts of the Safeway market, 2365 S. Winchester blvd., were reportedly taken from two clerks at approximately 10 p.m. by a lone gunman who ordered the clerks to throw him the deposit bag containing the cash and checks.

COINS, JEWELRY TAKEN

A Budd avenue apartment resident lost $1,986 in coins and jewelry in a Wednesday afternoon burglary, according to police reports.

The intruder apparently entered through an open window and fled after a resident surprised him around 3 p.m.

GAS STATION HOLDUP

Ninety dollars in cash was taken Thursday in a holdup at the Regal service station at 1860 W. Campbell ave. police reports said.

The thief reportedly simulated a weapon, demanded money and then locked the clerk in the bathroom. The clerk told police that the robber escaped in a dark Volkswagen.

PARTS PILFERED

An auto transmission and drive line valued at $800 was reported stolen last week from the parking lot of Parr Concrete, 615 McGlincy lane.

STATION ROBBED

The Terrible Herbst gas station at 1311 Camden avenue was reportedly robbed of $310 worth of cigarettes Thursday morning by an intruder who allegedly kicked in a plate glass window to gain access to the goods.

MOTORCYCLE PASSENGER HURT

A 19-year-old Campbell woman suffered a compound fracture of the left leg when the motorcycle on which she was a passenger collided with a car at the intersection of Campbell avenue and Winchester blvd. early last Tuesday morning.

Police said the woman was a passenger on a motorcycle headed southbound on Winchester that ran a red light and collided with an auto headed westbound of Campbell.

The driver of the motorcycle was cited by police for failure to stop at the red light.

An Affair to Remember with BEA RENÉ

Last week a lady called to thank me for a dining tip – I had suggested CLEMENTINE'S, since she not only wanted to enjoy a fine dinner w/out-of-town guests, but also wished to impress them w/an outstanding decor. The dinner was a complete success & they loved the 1930 artifacts, the liberal use of etched windows, the huge tiffany silk shades, old fashioned bicycles & memorabilia. This theme is carried from the D.R. into the lounge where jazz sounds of "TOUCH" are heard Wed.-Sat. nites.
There's a certain festiveness about enjoying Champagne with your dinner . . . right? Here's an opportunity to have the bubbly served to you "complimentary" with your dinner every Mon., Tues. & Wed. at SIRLOIN AND BREW UNLIMITED – at any of their locations in Belmont, Fremont, Saratoga, Oakland & S.F. Refills are also offered, plus a choice of wine or pitchers of sangria . . . So, every nite's a celebration at SIRLOIN AND BREW UNLIMITED . . . excellent cuisine, too! Dinners start at only $4.89. Try it.
HWEI FU SHING is a Chinese restaurant with a difference – specializing, I would say, primarily in pleasing the entire family. The decor is certainly not elegant, but is a simple, clean restaurant where your host, Chef Pang On Lwi prepares primarily Peking cuisine – he brought many recipes w/him from Burma where he learned his trade many yrs. ago. They especially favor children giving an extra cookie or 2 . . . so keep this in mind.

Things go swimmingly for Pisces and Scorp

June 24 through June 30

ARIES (March 21-April 19): You have a chance to go from the known to the unknown. You are not only first in the Zodiac, Ari, but you are often first to seize opportunity for advancement when it is presented. You understand that though the postman always rings twice, opportunity seldom does.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Complex problem of personal nature cannot be solved with simplistic answer. You will have to do some rooting, digging. Slough off lethargy, Taurus, and ask questions. What has been blurred comes into focus. Week clicks to an interesting close.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): You are basically cerebral, Gem, and thus tend to approach romance from an intellectual standpoint. This is fine, but don't carry it to ridiculous extreme. In week ahead, make more love and less conversation.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): You are strongly affected by the moon, dear friend. And you're just as romantic and changeable. In days ahead, guard against petulance. Minor irritations are hard on your blood pressure and your reputation. Be more patient. Instant coffee and tea are one thing, but instant success is a whole 'nother matter.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): The Sun is your sign, Leo, and because of this you are blessed with great personal charm. In week ahead, you are the magnet and others are drawn to you like helpless, little iron filings. Ah, would that we could ALL be so fortunate.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Don't spend too much time posing as "The Thinker," Virg. You are not a product of the sculptor Rodin, you are a product of Momma Nature. Sure, you are cool — as marble on the outside — but inside a fire rages.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Yours is an air sign. Libra, and as you know, air is for intellect. Like air, you circulate easily, do some extracurricular circulating in week ahead. When you're fresh, you're not only invigorating, but an absolute joy. Even a sozzled Libra is better than no Libra at all.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): You are the second water sign, Scorp, and water is for emotion. Let's face it, you do have unusually powerful emotional responses. Pisces enters picture. You're both water babies and your mutual plans proceed swimmingly.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Others may cause you some mental aggravation. Saj, but perhaps you have it coming. Remember, dear heart, you're not the easiest person to get along with. You're headstrong and bristling with ambition. Sometimes you make others feel insecure. Try using more tact.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Member of opposite sex may invite you to visit the other side of the mulberry bush. Go if you like, Cap, but please don't blame Olga if you discover that you've been given the old run around.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): That gulf between you and member of another generation may widen unless you take situation in hand soon. Like today. The clock cannot be turned back. Know this and act accordingly.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): You are by nature a gentle person, Pisces, and most generous, too. Don't change. But don't permit others to take advantage of you, either. Remember this, my sweet, if St. Francis were alive today, he would love you.

Car dealers' tournament raises funds

More than $3,000 will be contributed to community activities by the Santa Clara County Motor Car Dealers Association as proceeds from the group's annual invitational golf and tennis tournament, held June 15 at Almaden Country Club. Recipients of the funds will be determined shortly.

In the tournament, the permanent trophy for the dealer with the low net score went to Don Lucas of Don Lucas Honda/BMW. Lowest net of the day, however, was by Loren McQueen of Communications Control, 87-26-61. Low Calloway, 53, was by Jack Reilly of the Toyota factory, and low gross, 74, was recorded by a guest, Continental Airlines pilot Hunter Gridley. Winners of all three divisions received color TV sets, as did the Class A tennis winner, Don Straub of Gavilan Bank.

A cash prize of $500 was given by Dick Werner of Fireside Thrift for closest to the hole and it was won by Tim King of Smythe Buick (6-ft. 3-in.) in the dealer division. Class B tennis winner was Tim Carl of Carl Chevrolet.

At the awards dinner, attended by 216, the door prize of a trip for two to Jamaica was won by Vic Ardelean of GWC.

Summer series of comedy set

San Jose State University's Company Comique will present their Summer Repertory Festival July 6 through Aug. 12.

Starting the fun will be Tom Stoppard's "The Real Inspector Hound," July 6-8, 13-15, and 21 in the Studio Theater. The play within the play opens with a featherdusting scene. Then we meet the countess, and her girlfriend guest, and the roue she met. Triangle. But then in comes the crippled brother of the countess' dead husband. Quadrangle. They play at cards and double-entendre, disperse, and then the roue is shot dead. Inspector Hound arrives. Strange, because nobody called him. That's only part of the fun.

Opening next is an adaptation of John Gay's "Beggar's Opera," Bertolt Brecht and Kurt Weill's "The Three Penny Opera," playing July 20, 22, 28, Aug. 3, 5, 6, and 11 in the University Theater.

Last but not least, Shakespeare's "As You Like It" opens July 27, in the Student Union Amphitheater, continuing to play July 29, 30, Aug. 2, 4, 10 and 12. This delightful comedy has entertained millions.

Tickets are $3, general, $1.50, students and senior citizens. Subscription rates are $7.50 general, $3.75 student and senior citizen. Call the Box Office at 277-2777 or 277-2763 for information.

Newsbriefs

SUNNYOAKS SEWERS

Glage Underground was awarded the contract for storm drain and sewer work on Sunnyoaks ave. and Kenneth last week with a low bid of $97,501. Next highest bidder was D.C.M. Construction with $102,974 and highest of the five bids was $141,159.

The job will run about $7,000 over the engineer's estimate.

Campbell will be paying about $64,000 for the sewer construction with Sanitation District 4 picking up the difference.

Novel restaurant gets council okay

A restaurant with 12 parking spaces? Campbell officials okayed one last week.

The unusual dining spot is planned by James and Frank Mackey at 106 E. Campbell ave., a "Quasi Spanish" style building near Fourth st. that previously housed a speech and learning center.

Those 12 spaces will be adequate, one of the applicants told officials, because they plan to operate an exclusive, reservations only business.

Among provisions of the use permit issued was that hours of operation shall not exceed 6 to 11:30 p.m., the building will be used as a low intensity restaurant and the applicants will apply for "landmark status" when the Landmark Preservation Ordinance is adopted by the city.

CITY TO WORK WITH HOMEOWNERS GROUP

Campbell city councilmen directed staff to consult the Cambrian Area Homeowners Association in preparing a report on a possible boundary change for the Local Agency Formation Commission (LAFCO).

That action came at the June 12 council meeting at the request of a representative of the homeowners group.

LAFCO will be studying a request by homeowners to change the sphere of influence in that county area from San Jose to Campbell.

Among studies Campbell will be making is the level of police and five service the city can provide for the estimated 2,000 residents of that area.

BAHA'IS GATHERING SATURDAY

Saturday, June 24, the Baha'is of Campbell will be meeting at 11:30 a.m. at John D. Morgan Park.

The public is invited to bring a picnic lunch and join the Baha'is who will host a program beginning at 2 p.m.

PRE SCHOOL LEASES SCHOOL

Moreland district trustees have approved a lease arrangement with Small World Pre-Schools for use of Strawberry Park School at a cost of $21,680.

The lease arrangement, ratified at the June 13 board meeting, runs from September 1, 1978 to August 31, 1979.

Strawberry Park was closed at the end of this school year due to declining student enrollment.

Library programs continue

Services and programs at the Campbell public library will continue on without change, at least through July 23, County Librarian Barbara Campbell announced last week.

A decision on possible layoffs and cutbacks in the county library system will be made in July by the county board of supervisors.

Originally county officials estimated the library programs would suffer a cutback in funding of 69 per cent with the passage of Proposition 13. Additional property tax funds from the resale of property since 1975-76 could add about $600,000 in revenue for libraries and increased state aid to the counties has not been determined.

"By continuing into the coming fiscal year at the service level for this year, we are using up a portion of the possible additional revenue so that the eventual service level we finally reach will be lower because we have overused funds at the beginning of the year," Campbell said.

Why it will cost more to keep her warm next winter.

When winter arrives, most Californians will burn natural gas to keep warm, and they've come to take it for granted. But natural gas is just not as easy to find as it used to be.

As old supplies of natural gas run out, new supplies must come from deeper wells and more distant places – driving costs up. So while we plan to keep supplies flowing, the days of cheap natural gas are over.

Gas costs are up.

Over the past five years, the price to us has quintupled–increases we've had to pass on to our customers.

Higher costs of gas from our suppliers in the Southwest and Canada have caused us to ask for a gas rate increase on July 1. For a typical household using 1,200 therms of gas a year, the increase would be more than $27 a year. And while it may not amount to much on your summer bills – when gas use is low– you'll notice the effect next winter.

But as unpleasant as higher rates are, the thought of running short of gas is far worse. One third of all California energy is provided by natural gas. If you exclude transportation, over half of California's energy comes from gas. So it's essential that we pay the higher costs necessary to bring in new gas supplies.

What we're doing to get more gas.

We're working now to obtain new gas from California, the Rocky Mountains, Alaska's North Slope and Canada. Mexico may also be a source of new supplies. And we're seeking permission to build facilities at Point Conception where liquefied natural gas could be brought in by ship from Indonesia, South Alaska and other sources overseas. We're also working on substitute natural gas from coal, oil, garbage and agricultural waste.

All of these new sources of natural gas are more costly to develop than present supplies, which are gradually being used up.

What you can do to conserve gas and keep your bills down.

There are many steps you can take around the house. If you haven't insulated your attic, now's the time. We can help finance the cost up to $500 at a low 8% interest rate with up to five years to repay.

We have free booklets at every office that show lots of ways to conserve energy and help keep your bills down.

With costs of bringing you natural gas continuing to increase, conservation must become a way of life for us all.

We don't like to talk about higher bills, but not telling you the facts would be a greater disservice. If we all work together to conserve the gas we have now and develop new supplies, no one will be left out in the cold.

Nutrition notes

You need some fat in, but not on, your body

ALL FATS are not bad! A recent study offers evidence that essential fatty acids are needed while the young brain is developing to prevent mental retardation. Fats are all composed of fatty acids. Three of these are termed "essential" because the body can't make them and they must come from a dietary source.

The diets of pregnant women and young infants should contain more of these essential fatty acids than do diets of non-pregnant adults. Essential fatty acids are found in vegetable oils, especially safflower, corn, soybean, and cottonseed oils. Milk from well-nourished mothers provides five percent of the calories from essential fatty acids so this level is felt to be a good recommended intake for infants. The RDS for adults is one percent of the total calories.

The researchers in Maryland who conducted this study feel that the persons most susceptible to essential fatty acids deficiency are young pregnant women who eat "junk foods" which are usually low in unsaturated fats. These same scientists believe that the diet of all pregnant women and children under 12 months of age should contain more essential fatty acids.

ONE OF THE first signs of essential fatty acid deficiency in humans is skin lesions and dermatitis. Babies stop growing when their diets do not contain enough essential fatty acids. Premature infants who are placed on intravenous feedings should have a dietary source of these essential fatty acids.

The President's Committee on Mental Retardation reports that poor nutrition is believed to be responsible for 15 percent of the mental retardation in this country. There are 250 known causes of retardation and deficiencies of protein, calories, iron and vitamins are among them.

While it is important for the pregnant woman to take in sufficient amounts of the essential fatty acids, these should be a part of the 30 percent total fat in her diet. To be assured of a higher intake of essential fatty acids, the salad dressings and cooking oils should be composed of polyunsaturated fats. Margarine made of these oils should be used instead of butter.

Drink nonfat milk and trim the fat from meats, eat poultry and fish so that there will be calories available to spend on the oils high in the essential fatty acids. Walnuts are an especially good source of one of the essential fatty acids and can contribute considerable protein to the diet even though, like all nuts, they are high in calories.

Comedy satire to be produced

"The Crafty Matchmaker," a comedy satire by the renowned Ceylonese playwright Howard C. N. deLanerolle, will make its United States debut at the St. Martin's Recreation Hall in Sunnyvale on June 24.

The play, which revolves around the intricate plots of the matchmaker Abraham to arrange a marriage between his daughter Emely and Freddy, the son of his county's native chieftain, pokes fun at some of Ceylon's oldest traditions, including arranged marriages, the strict social class structure and the system of native government.

"The Crafty Matchmaker" has had a long history of success. First produced in Ceylon (now Sri Lanka) in 1937, it has been revived periodically over the past forty years, always playing to enthusiastic crowds and full houses.

Under the direction of the playwright himself, the play has been modified for an American audience. Further information and /or tickets may be obtained by calling 739-5665 in the evenings, or St. Martin's Rectory, 736-3725.

'My Fair Lady' to be cast soon

The West Valley Light Opera Association will be holding auditions for singers, dancers, actors and musicians for the Lerner and Loewe musical, "My Fair Lady."

Scheduled for June 24 and 25 from 1 to 5 p.m., the tryouts will be held at the Saratoga Civic Theater, 13777 Fruitvale Ave. in Saratoga. "Name" parts will be cast as well as the large chorus and dancers. All ranges of voices will be needed, with some non-singing parts available.

The musical will be performed in September and October with director/choreographer John P. Healy, Jr. and producer Jean Hutchins. For more information, on weekdays call 358-1896 and weekend nights, 997-2268.

Mets, Pirates a half game back

Surprise Yanks lead Pony league race

Pair share 1st in Campbell B softball loop

By CHUCK HILDERBRAND

NOT MANY people figured the Fontanetti's Yankees would be a factor in the Campbell Moreland Pony League race prior to this season.

The Yankees did have defending batting champion Rich Alvarez in camp, but most of their other talent was unproven and gaping holes appeared at several positions.

But the Yankees surprised everyone, and as of Sunday, they held a half-game edge in the sizzling regular-season championship race.

Manager Bud Stallings' club took two heart-stoppers from the Wheelaway Cycle Center A's, 2-1 and 3-2, over the weekend to improve its record to 13-5, just ahead of the Campbell Optimist Mets and the Magoo's Pizza Pirates, both 13-6.

The Mets split with the Fiorillo's Pizza Giants, prevailing 3-2 on Saturday but succumbing 12-3 Sunday, while the Pirates dunked the Straw Hat Pizza tigers 2-0 and 10-8.

In the other weekend series, the snakebit Gagliardi Brothers Dodgers dropped two to the American Realty Cardinals, 1-0 in 11 innings and 6-3.

IN THE SUNDAY contest between the A's and Yanks, the A's touched Alvarez for two runs in the fifth to take a 2-1 lead. Paul Sargis doubled in the tie-breaking run.

But the Yankees, in typical fashion, cashed in on an A's throwing error to deadlock the score in the seventh, and John Gil punched a bases-loaded single through a drawn-in infield to score Todd Chandler with the winner in the eighth.

In contrast to their late heroics Sunday, the Yankees struck early and held on Saturday, scoring both their runs in the first inning.

A bases-loaded walk to Dave Bryant forced in one run and Kris Kroening's infield grounder tallied the other.

Alvarez, John Imhoof and Dominic Costantino shared the mound chores, holding the A's to two hits.

After his slow start, A's hurler Matt Ramos shackled the Yankee attack, winding up with a four-hitter.

A one-hitter by the Giants' John Heidemann went for naught against the Mets Saturday, as two key miscues coupled with daring baserunning by the Mets cost him the decision.

Tony Kephart's third-inning single, the only Mets safety, scored the first run and Eric Crawford stole home in the fourth for the clincher.

BOB STRAIGHT tossed four-hit ball over six innings to pick up the mound win. The Giants got a solo homer from Todd Phillips and two hits from Ed Rodriguez.

It was a different story the next day, though, as the Giants racked up five hits and erupted for six runs in the first and seventh frames.

Phillips cracked four hits in five trips and Rich Hunt and Mike Reilly added two each. Second baseman Dave Yates sparkled defensively for the winners.

Tom Bendinelli notched the pitching triumph with late help from Rodriguez. Kephart and Chris Gettler poked two hits each for the Mets.

The Pirate hill trio of Brett Blackwell, Joray Marrujo and Doug Kercher came within one out of a perfect game against the Tigers Saturday.

Bill Roberts broke up the bid with a double just out of the reach of diving centerfielder Jeff Huntze.

Marrujo clouted two of the Bucs' six hits, including a solo homer.

In the loosely-played Sunday rematch, the Pirates fell behind 7-2 in the fourth but battled back with three in the fourth, one in the fifth and four in the sixth. Mark Floth paced the attack with two hits.

Roberts thumped a three run homer and Keith Furuya chipped in with three hits for the Tigers.

THE CARDINALS' Tom Gricius, who fired no-hit ball over the first seven frames, singled in Al Vanegas in the 11th Saturday to end the league's longest game thus far.

Vanegas got the mound decision after holding the Dodgers to one hit in relief of Gricius. The Dodger trio of Eric Beyer, Steve Clinton and Steve Koontz blanked the Cards until the 11th. It was the seventh one run loss for the Dodgers.

On Sunday, the Redbirds needed a four run uprising in the seventh to stay ahead of the Giants in the race for the fourth and final play-off spot. The Cards are 10-6-1 and the Giants 10-7-1. The two clubs go head-to-head this weekend.

In early-week action, the Yankees edged the Pirates 2-1 in eight innings Monday, the Mets squeezed past the Tigers 5-4 Tuesday and the Giants whitewashed the A's 5-0 Friday.

A gamble by the Pirates in the eighth Monday — intentionally walking Alvarez with two out and nobody on — backfired when Alvarez stole second and scored on Costantino's single.

Alvarez did the seemingly impossible in his three-inning mound stint, striking out 10. The additional whiff came on a passed ball by the catcher.

Russ Cooper singled in Kephart in the seventh Tuesday as the Mets avoided what would have been their fourth straight extra-inning encounter.

On Friday, Rodriguez had a no-hitter going into the sixth and settled for a two-hit gem. Heidemann had three RBI's and Yates slammed a two run single for the Giants.

The regular season concludes on July 3, with the four team, double elimination play-offs beginning July 5. The regular season champion, if beaten in the play-offs, takes on the play-off king in a best-of-three series for the overall crown.

THE NO Names and Killroy remained deadlocked for first place in the Men's "B" division of the Campbell adult softball league last week with easy victories.

The No Names kept their perfect 6-0 record intact by pounding the New York Lifers 21-1 behind the pitching of Jean Rounds and the slugging of Robert Stasi.

Rounds flipped a five-hitter and struck out four while Stasi belted a home run.

Ron Herrera laced a triple and Richard Stasi and Robin Wibeto both clouted doubles for the winners.

Killroy, meanwhile, also ran its tally to 6-0 by thumping Ying Yang 13-1 as Terry McConville tossed a four-hitter.

Wait Moore rapped a double and a triple to spark the Killroy attack and Tim Woodside drilled a home run. McConville helped his own cause with a pair of doubles.

In other action, Jerry Ruggiero hurled a four-hitter and blasted a home run and a triple to lead the SMS Barons to a 23-1 rout of Bauer Concrete.

John Salazar slammed a triple while Ron Coleman, Randy Ames and Dave Fiehich each cracked doubles for the winners.

MARK Staggs homered and doubled while teammate Rich Canady doubled twice and tripled to spur Kamper Kits to a 10-7 triumph over Togos.

Ed Cina tossed the win, yielding just four hits and striking out one.

Jerry Carver, Martin Sheram and Mike Calahan collected doubles for Togos.

Steve Peacock outslugged Sticks and Stones 12-11. Ron Murz homered for the losers.

In Men's "C" division, Campbell Police Department remained unbeaten by defeating Noel Brown #1 13-10.

Kevin Austin rammed a home run for the Police Department.

Mike Palmer slammed a pair of home runs and Jerome Hankins hit one to lead Kragen Auto to an 8-2 victory over Clossco.

Rich Amelia blasted a home run and Jerry Mello tossed an eight-hitter to lead Bill's Tramsmission to a 17-3 romp over Noel J. Brown #1.

John Robaschotti doubled and tripled for the losers.

Although outhit 18-17, the Ball Busters trimmed the Tonko Blues 13-12. Mike Gomes homered for the Blues.

In Co-Ed Play, the first place SMS Red Barons won by forfeit over Immanuel Presbyterian.

The Pamco Packers nudged Snowden & Pencer 8-7. Richard McNerney homered for the winners while Ron Bernier did the same for the losers. Dawn Gassman tripled for Snowden & Pencer.

Marline Sanchez hurled the win, scattering 11 hits and fanning one.

Rivero, Eash nail gold medals at Fire Fighter's Olympics

A PAIR of local firefighters got together to pick up four medals last weekend at the Fire Fighter's Summer Olympics in San Mateo County.

Ray Rivero, a fire fighter-paramedic, and Mike Eash, a fire fighter, each won medals in the competition held Saturday, June 17, at locations throughout San Mateo County.

Rivero won a pair of gold medals and a silver medal in the Olympics in swimming action. Rivero, a former All-American swimmer for West Valley College, won the 100 and 50 yard backstroke events and was second in the 50 yard butterfly.

Eash rambled to a first place finish in the mile at the Olympics to claim his gold medal in track.

The event brought together the top fire fighter athletes in the state and is held annually, rotating between Southern and Northern California.

LL games on KRVE radio

CAMPBELL Little League games played on Saturdays can be heard on a tape-delay basis each Tuesday through Friday at 3:30 p.m. over KRVE radio (95.3 FM).

Hart homer helps Donettes stay unbeaten in West Valley majors

By ANNE BRENNAN
WEST VALLEY

MANY TIMES ERRORS come back to haunt the team that commits them. Such was the case when the Donettes beat the Hustlers 7-3.

The Hustlers committed five errors in the second inning to load the bases. And then Kim Snyder stepped to the plate and blasted a grand slam home run for what proved to be the winning margin.

Melody Hart also smashed a homer for the Donettes, who are still undefeated in the West Valley Bobby Sox major division.

Kim Wilson drove in Liz Jeffries in the bottom of the seventh to give the Chargers a 7-6 victory over the Devils.

Antonia Venezia made a spectacular catch in left field to retire the Devils in the top of the seventh.

The Chargers were again winners when they faced the Tin-Benders 17-3.

Denise Bondlie and Tricia Lico belted homers for the Chargers and Kendra Johnson stretched her hitting streak to eight games.

Theresa Mallek whacked three singles and a double to drive in five runs and help the Hustlers to an 18-4 victory over the Rams.

Winning pitcher Chris Athen allowed four hits.

Lisa Perante picked up four hits for the Hustlers and assisted in a double play.

The Hotlines defeated the Rams 11-5 as Mary Jones went three for five and Katie Fanoe was two for three.

Pat Milbourn and Annie Strutner both stroked triples.

Moose Lodge keeps winning

Bertolin HR enables WG to retain first place

WILLOW GLENN Optimists was just one out away from falling back into a first place tie with first half champion Moose Lodge last Thursday evening in the Major division of the Campbell Little League.

But Brien Bertolin came to the plate and blasted a dramatic three run homer, lifting Willow Glen to a pulsating 5-4 victory over Fontanetti's.

The victory enabled Willow Glen to retain its slim one game lead over streaking Moose Lodge heading into this, the final week of the regular season.

Bertolin, who chalked up the win inrelief, was two for three on the day, as was teammate Larry Miranda.

Willow Glen then beat Breuners 8-5 as David Niemeyer notched his seventh win in eight decisions.

Tony Hemphill sparked Willow Glen at the plate with his ninth home run of the season, a two run blast. Jim Zaccheo collected two hits. Peter Christian was two for three for Breuners.

MOOSE LODGE, meanwhile, ran its winning streak to nine straight games with victories over Doetsch and Robins.

Brent Hahn hurled Moose Lodge to a 3-1 win over Doetsch Building, striking out 10 along the way. It was Hahn's fifth win against no losses.

Steve Cena keyed the Moose Lodge attack with two hits.

Bill Avery fired a two-hit shut-out to give Moose a 3-0 win over Robins.

Bill Tsamis and Jerry Pennington both laced two hits for the winners.

Daryl Jones struck out 12 to pitch Breuners past Campbell Plaza 9-4.

Mark Phillips, Christian, Dan Profit and Kevin Ianello rapped two hits apiece for the winners.

George Tsmais went three for four to lead Fontanetti's past Plaza 4-2. Gary Favre was the winner in relief.

Andy Buchanan was two for two for Campbell Plaza.

Mark Phillips flipped a four-hitter to raise his record to 7-2 as Breuners beat Plaza 7-2.

Jones keyed the Breuners attack with a perfect three for three evening.

D's beat Robins 6-1 on a six-hitter by Scott Barry.

Doetsch Building defeated D's Automotive 6-3 behind the pitching of Kelly Sinkinson.

Wayne Terwilliger and Dave Lee both ripped two hits for Doetsch while Robert Artery had two hits for D's.

Dorr, Blobaum lead Dons' assault on record book

IT WAS QUITE a year for the Del Mar Don baseball team, both in the win column and on the statistics sheet.

The Dons posted one of the most successful seasons in their history in 1978, finishing the year with an 18-8 overall record and a share of their first West Valley Athletic League baseball championships in some 12 years.

But overshadowed by the Dons' brilliant season as a team were several outstanding individual accomplishments.

Catcher Jim Dorr topped the Del Mar stat sheet in seven different categories and broke one school record.

Dorr led the Dons in clutch average (.500), hits (23), batting average (.389), runs-batted-in (15), doubles (five), times on base (47) and fewest strike outs (two).

By striking out only twice in 84 at bats this season, an average of just once every 42 trips to the plate, Dorr erased the old school record of three in 98 at-bats (once per 33 at-bats) held by Dan "Yogi" Taylor.

Dorr, the Dons' catcher, was even more impressive in WVAL play, batting .431. In the clutch, with runners in scoring position, Dorr batted .714 (10 for 14).

Other Dons who topped the .300 mark in overall play included Fred Gradel (.314), Bill Tsamis (.313) and Kevin Cesar (.300).

THOSE WHO FLIRTED with the .300 mark included Tom Bell (.293), Jeff Blobaum (.293) and Craig Richesin (.299).

Cesar (.400), Tsamis (.357) and Gradel (.333) all hit better than .300 in league.

Richesin broke the school record for triples in one season by belting four in 1978. The old mark was three, shared by Tom Pugliesi (1975), Steve Esau (1975) and Mark Intrieri (1977).

Blobaum, who got off to a shakey start in '78, finished strong and wound up his two year pitching career at Del Mar with a couple of school records.

Blobaum was 8-5 overall on the year and 6-3 in league, winning six WVAL decisions in a row after losing his first three.

In 75 innings of work, Blobaum struck out a team high 85 batters while posting a fine 2.51 earned run average.

Bell, who was 6-2 overall, struck out 59 in 57 innings on the mound and recorded a team leading 1.03 ERA.

Ace reliever Larry Ragusa was 3-1 with a 2.44 ERA and John Benevento was 1-0.

Blobaum, who won 10 games as a junior, finished with 18 victories in his varsity career, erasing Tom Harris' career record of 16.

Blobaum also wiped out his own record for most strike outs in a season by fanning 85, eclipsing his old record by 11.

The Dons' hard throwing righthander finished his Del Mar career with 159 strike outs, establishing another school record.

Niccoli 1st in freestyle

KEVIN NICCOLI collected a first, second and third in the advanced open division to highlight action last weekend at the annual skateboard contest, co-hosted by the Saratoga Community Center and the Campbell Community services.

Niccoli finished first in the open freestyle event with 9.33 points. He bagged a second in the 360's event (18 points) and finished third in the half pipe (32.33).

John Raritch won the open slalom (12.32 points), Dan Ewell took the open 360's (20 points), Bill Acherman finished first in the open high jump (4'10") and Peter Gifford was the winner in the half pipe (38 points).

Other freestyle winners included Scot Jorgenson (11 and under, novice), Todd Hatch (12-16, intermediate), Don Oshei (17 and over, intermediate) and Christine Carrey (women's open).

Slalom event winners were Allan Marquez (11 and under, intermediate), Steve Corens (12-16, intermediate), Rick Stargeon (17 and over, intermediate) and Judy Oyama (women's open).

Half pipe victors included Jeff Mello (11 and under, intermediate), George Milburn (12-16, intermediate), Dylan Simpson (17 and over, intermediate) and Terry Verdora (women's open).

Martin sparks Reds to pair of comeback wins

Thanks largely to the bat of Rick Martin, the Reds remained in contention for the final play-off spot in the Moreland Little League last week.

Martin sparked the Reds to come-from-behind victories over the Dodgers and the Senators, keeping the Reds in a third place tie with the Senators at 8-10.

The top three teams in the Moreland Little League major division will qualify for the play-offs. Even the last place Dodgers head into this, the final week of the regular season with a chance to make the play-offs.

The Reds kept their play-off hopes alive with a 9-5 victory over the Dodgers as Martin drove in five runs.

In their next outing, the Reds trimmed the Senators 5-4 on Martin's runs-scoring single in the bottom of the seventh.

The Giants clobbered the Senators 20-8, in other action.

Pete Pavicich cracked his first home run of the season to spark the Giant victory. Brad Farnsworth clouted a pair of homers for the Senators, his third and fourth HR's of the season.

The Giants failed to gain ground on the Cubs, however, as they lost to the league leaders 9-7, despite Eric Yamasaki's sixth home run of the season.

The cellar dwelling Dodgers trimmed the Cubbies 11-10 in eight innings.

The first SF Giants line-up

SO YOU think you're quite a Giants fan do you? Well, can you name the opening day line-up for the Giants in 1958, their first season on the West Coast?

The Giants opened up against the arch-rival Los Angeles Dodgers with a starting line-up that had Jimmy Davenport at third base, Jim King in leftfield, Willie Mays in centerfield, Willie Kirkland in right-field, Orlando Cepeda at first base, Daryl Spencer at shortstop, Danny O'Connell at second base, Valmy Thomas at catcher and Ruben Gomez on the mound.
